CASWELL COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA
(Formed 1777 from Orange County)

NOTE: Approximately 1,200 wills are recorded in Caswell County for the 1777-1900 period. The wills for the 1777-1868 period are recorded in Will Books A through T - there was never a Will Book J, however. Beginning 1868, there is another Will Book A (1868-1889), followed by Will Book B (1889-1908), and so on. Prior to 1868, however, Books A through T are designated as Record Books rather than Will Books, because, in addition to wills, there are inventories of estates, sales of estates, bills of sale, etc. But only the wills are listed in this publication. It was necessary to read 9,852 pages of 21 will books in order to list these 1,200 wills. Olds, in his Abstract of North Carolina Wills, 1760-1800, listed 178 Caswell County wills for the 1777-1800 period, but eleven wills were overlooked and not included, namely: Stephen Hamblin, 1782; John Powel, 1787; Martha Ware, 1799; Deverux Inge, 1800; Thomas Rice, 1800; Sally Perkins, 1800; Hugh Dobbins, 1800; Barkley Elam, 1800; Thomas Wilson, 1800; Abraham Womack, 1800; Thomas Hinton, 1800. Further, among the 178 wills which Olds did list, there were several major errors: Robert Bumpass was listed twice; and the following names must be corrected and changed as follows - change and correct Nicholas Charles to Archelaus Carlos, Pleasant Parker to Pleasant Perkins, John Reid to John Rice, Thomas Robinson to Thomas Robertson, James Williams (1787) to Stephen Williamson. Also, Olds listed a Matthew Stokes, but no such man existed, at least in Caswell County. So eliminate the name Matthew Stokes; the name was actually Matthew Mains or Manes, which Olds also listed. Below, the name of the testator is followed by the date of the probate, and the volume and page where the will is recorded. In cases where no date of probate is given, the date of the will is substituted, and indicated by a "c" (as an abbreviation for circa, or "about" - for example c1783).

Bartlesville Area History Museum volunteer honored with statewide award

Special to the E-E

Bartlesville Area History Museum volunteer Mary R. M. Nunneley has been named the winner of the Certificate of Recognition in the Oklahoma Museums Association 2000 Annual Awards Program.

The awards recognize outstanding achievement by museums, staff and volunteers throughout the state during the past year. Award categories include exhibitions, publications, education programs and promotional materials. The competition is divided into three budget categories for small, medium and large institutions.

According to Karen Smith Woods, Director/Curator, Nunneley is a worthy recipient for the award due to her high level of commitment to the museum and her devotion to preserving local history.

"Mary was my entire staff until a paid position was budgeted," said Smith Woods.

Although she refuses to work for money, Nunneley continues to be a dedicated staff member. Since February 1998, she has spent at least eight hours per week in storage. Anticipating the museum's relocation, Nunneley offered to work behind the scenes organizing, inventorying, and packing the collections. To date, she has spent over 1000 hours conducting an inventory that will make the collections more accessible for the staff and public.

As a part of the inventorying process, Nunneley became enthralled with the thousands of historic photographs in the museum's collection. As a result, she has undertaken the almost overwhelming task of organizing the entire photographic collection.

"Mary Is incredibly meticulous in her work — an attribute which is essential to collections management," said Smith Woods.

Nunneley has packed all the negatives, located photographs, placed them in archival material, and is organizing them according to subject.

In the midst of locating photographs, Nunneley discovered hundreds of historical postcards. This discovery launched yet another exciting project. She placed each postcard in a mylar sleeve and organized the entire collection by subject. After careful consideration, it was decided that producing a postcard book would most effectively display the collection. Nunneley not only assisted with the selection of postcards for Bartlesville, Oklahoma: The Postcard Series, she also devoted many hours of research to provide captions.

Nunneley has always had an interest in local history because her grandparents moved to the city in 1907. This deep interest led her to begin volunteering for the museum in 1978. For more than 20 years now, Nunneley has been extremely supportive of the museum. She is one of the founding members of the newly formed Friends of the Bartlesville Area History Museum. Nunneley is also involved in other historical-related community activities. She serves on the Washington County Historical Society Board of Directors and was instrumental in the formation of the White Rose Cemetery Board.

Nunneley will be honored at a luncheon on Sept. 22 in Norman as part of the OMA's statewide conference. Award recipients from throughout the state will also be recognized: Robert Powers for Service to the Profession; Edmond Historical Society, "Vietnam Wall Experience" for Outreach/Education Program; Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History, "Conservation & Restoration of the Roman Mosaic from the House of Cilicia, A.D. 200" for Outstanding Conservation Project; Oklahoma State Museum of History, "Remembering U.S.S. Oklahoma" and Oklahoma Historical Society, "All-Black Towns of Oklahoma" for Outstanding Interpretive Exhibition; and Oolagah Historical Society, "Early Schools of Oolagah" and Confederate Memorial Museum, "Atoka County Historical Society Newsletter" for Outstanding Publication.

ry. A deal with Texaco unraveled last summer after Texaco basically rejected all aspects of Chevron's offer. Texaco said in a terse statement released last June that Chevron's proposal was "unacceptable for several reasons, including complexity, feasibility, risk and price."

Ironically, the financial aspects of the defunct Texaco deal were similar to those of the Phillips proposal. Texaco was seeking an offer in the area of $80 a share, while Chevron had offered around $70.

Chevron is apparently looking to add Phillips' significant production assets outside the continental United States, most notably in Alaska, Venezuela, China and the former Soviet Union.

Since Chevron and Phillips' businesses have little overlap, the combination could be expected to pass regulatory muster because a merger wouldn't blend similar operations, a situation that regulators fear limits consumer choice and stifles competition.

Chevron had 1999 sales of $31.5 billion. Phillips, based in Bartlesville, had sales of $13.9 billion last year.

Producers seek oil stability

OPEC's decision to pump more crude isn't expected to slow Oklahoma oil producers' efforts to capitalize on high prices — or give consumers big breaks at the gas station.

Several Oklahoma producers remained wary but said Monday that the OPEC agreement to boost production by 800,000 barrels a day likely will have little impact on drilling plans. A2

Opinion

It has always been said that politics is a dirty business. The race for the state representative seat in District 10 is certainly underscoring that fact. At least from one side.

District 10 is represented by Gary Taylor, a Democrat. He is facing a challenge from Rick Zink, Jr.., a Republican. Gary Taylor is very well known across Nowata County...A4

Talk lifts Phillips, Chevron shares higher

By Dunstan Prial

NEW YORK (AP) — Rumors that Chevron, the second largest U.S. oil company, is courting Oklahoma-based Phillips Petroleum at a reported price tag of $18.4 billion sent the stocks of both companies higher Monday.

But analysts say the deal may be in jeopardy because Chevron's bid is believed to be too low.

Nevertheless, investors bought

The Bartlesville City Council voted in favor of a joint interlocal venture with Independent School District No. 30 in a land acquisition of the property at the southeast corner of Adams Blvd. and Cherokee Ave., downtown Bartlesville.

The deal is set to close today at a cost of $90,000 plus $5,400 in real estate commissions which is a six percent standard amount.

According to a signed interlocal agreement, the city will clear and improve the site in an effort to enhance the existing open area lying north of Central Middle School. Each party to this agreement will contribute $10,000 to the development of this project. Preliminary plans include landscaping and sidewalk construction.

According to Jerry Maddux, city attorney, the rest of the funding for this project will be through donations and other private funds.

The property is set to be demolished along with the old City Administration building and the Guy Henshall building directly west of the YMCA once a suitable contractor is found and bids have gone out.

Absentee voters are welcome in Runoff

Special to the E-E

Registered voters who want to vote by absentee ballot in the Sept. 19, Runoff Primary Election for County Commissioner District 2 can receive and cast a ballot by going to the Washington County Election Board office on Thursday, Friday or Monday.

A two-member bipartisan absentee voting board will be on duty from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to assist in-person absentee voters, County Election Board Secretary, Brad Johnson, said today.

Johnson also stated that registered voters who become physically incapacitated after 5 p.m. Tuesday won't have to miss the Sept. 19 election.

Johnson said state law permits registered voters who will be unable to go to the polls because they became incapacitated after 5 p.m. Tuesday to vote on an emergency basis. "Physical incapacitation" includes a variety of

BARTLESVILLE BOWS IN MEMORY OF SOLDIER DEAD

(part of a lengthy article)

Bartlesville today joined with the nation in annual memorial day tribute to the country's honored dead and locally the oldest living veterans, the men who fought in the Civil War, were special guests of the day. Twenty three survivors of that great conflict took part in today's ceremonies, probably the greatest number in years. After the passing parade, the veterans remained only long enough to have their picture taken in their places in the reviewing stand when they entered cars and were taken to White Rose Cemetery for the remainder of the services. The Civil War veterans in this group included:

UNION VETERANS

S. H. Radabaugh
George Busha
J. K. Green
W. S. Maynard
L. C. Phillips
Leonard South
L. A. Wyatt
John G. Ross
Robert M. Anderson
A. R. Custer
C. E. Mason
Miles Jones
F. M. Purdum
Henry Wier
David Knisley

CONFEDERATE VETERANS

R. M. Burch
C. H. Gill
Archibald Harvey
Morgan Mattox
James Cody
C. B. Gray
H. A. Loftin
S. McCowan

Also, four wives and two widows of veterans:

Mrs. W. S. Maynard
Mrs. F. M. Purdum
Mrs. Joanna Cain (widow)
Mrs. C. E. Mason
Mrs. T. L. South
Mrs. Mary Woodruff (widow)

Services at the cemetery opened with prayer by Rev. Harry Markley. Mrs. Jennie Stewart then called the roll of deceased veterans of all wars buried in this county. Judge J. R. Charlton introduced the veterans after which he spoke for a few minutes paying high tribute to both the soldiers of the north and south.

The speaker for the day was Mr. Dudley Monk of Okmulgee, a former department commander for the American Legion.
Closing services included a salute to the dead by a firing squad and the sounding of taps by a bugler, community singing of the Star Spangled Banner led by H. H. McClintock and closing prayer by Rev. George G. Tyner. The program at the cemetery was presided over by Rev. W. V. Buckner who acted as master of ceremonies.

SEVEN VETERANS OF THE CIVIL WAR

The following Civil War veterans recently gathered a the home of Ben S. Thaxton of this city to celebrate the 80th birthday of Mr. Thaxton. Those attending were:

J. L. Chamberlain, age 90
William Bueker, age 86
Ben S. Thaxton, Age 80
Mr. Phillips, age 80
M. C. Jones, age 79
W. S. Eoff, age 76
F. M. Purdum, age 75

The first GAR (Grand Army of the Republic) Post was founded on April 1, 1866 in Springfield, Illinois. The first GAR state convention was held July 12, 1866 at Indianapolis, Indiana. The first national encampment was held on November 10, 1866 at the Opera House in Indianapolis. Delegates came from nine states, mostly from Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota and Iowa. The Gar membership for 1866 was about 100,000. By 1890, the GAR reached its peak membership of 427, 981 members. After 1890, the membership began to decline rapidly. By 1952 there were only three surviving members of GAR. The last member to die from the Grand Old Army was Albert Woolson of Duluth, Minnesota in 1956.

WHITE ROSE CEMETERY
11TH AND VIRGINIA STREETS – BARTLESVILLE, OKLAHOMA

The following persons interred within White Rose Cemetery have been honored by the City of Bartlesville and the White Rose Cemetery Board by having a street in the Cemetery named for them:

"GRANDMA" PATIACOW (1817 – 1924) – A Delaware Indian – and the oldest (107 years) living Indian in the State of Oklahoma at the time of her death. She, in young womanhood, rode her Indian pony during the Civil War from Texas to Kansas with her young son, Joe Wagon. Her bravery in this feat was remembered and talked about for many years. "Grandma" as she was known, and is memoralized on her gravestone, lived alone near Sand Creek Bluff on her allotment. Her Dawes Roll number is D36. She traded her beadwork for groceries. Friends attributed her long life to her method of living close to nature.

JAMES CHASTAIN BLYTHE (1824 – 1906) – A Cherokee Indian. He came to Bartlesville about 1895. He was the father of Josie, who married George B. Keeler, a local business man. Another daughter, Ellen, was responsible for the 7th Street bridge being dedicated as a memorial bridge in honor of local men who served in World War I. Bronze plaques were installed on the bridge naming each serviceman. Mr. Blythe served as a city commissioner in 1897, and was a member of the Masons for over 50 years. He is buried with the Keeler family at White Rose.

SAMUEL O. BOPST (1855 – 1912) – Mr. Bopst came to Bartlesville in 1884 and was employed at the store of Johnstone & Keeler. He was later engaged in a business partnership with George B. Keeler. N. C. Keeler purchased the interest of George Keeler and the firm became known as, Bopst & Keeler. Later, Mr. Bopst became the sole owner. The business was one of the most successful furniture stores in northern Oklahoma. He was, also, treasurer of the Caney Valley Oil and Gas.

HUGH LORENZO "SUNNY JIM" BRYANT (1864 – 1958) – Mr. Bryant was born in Illinois and as a child moved with his family to Russelville, AR, where he received his education. He came to Bartlesville, Indian Territory, in August, 1899. His first business was Bryant and Bradley General Store. In 1911, he organized the Peoples Savings and Loan Association, serving as President and Chairman of the Board. Mr. Bryant was instrumental in building the Caney River bridge so county residents could come to town and trade. He built the White Rose Mausoleum and at his death, his will stated that the Mausoleum, all of the stock and certain moneys were to go to the City of Bartlesville.

WILLIAM TECUMSEH BERENTZ (1867 – 1931) – Mr. Berentz was an early day hardware store owner, arriving in Bartlesville about 1900. He was born in Illinois, but came to Bartlesville from Edna, Kansas. He owned Berentz Hardware Store and was a partner in Berentz and Kerrick Undertakers, located at 8th and Dewey, where Neekamp Funeral Home is located.

GOLDA M. HARTMAN (18 Dec 1892 – 17 Feb 1893) – The infant daughter of Hampton A. Hartman (1861 – 1933) and Celia Hartman (1868 – 1934). Her stone is the oldest dated stone in White Rose Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman died in Tulsa and were interred in White Rose near Golda and two other Hartman infants. Since White Rose was not yet open when Golda Hartman died, it is possible that she was moved from another location.

MELECIO QUINTANA (1901 – 1956) – Mr. Quintana came to Bartlesville in 1917 from Mexico. One of the earliest Mexican immigrants to the area, he worked for the railroad initially and later had a concrete, plastering and remodeling business. He worked extensively at Frank Phillips' Woolaroc Ranch and on area Catholic Churches. With only a second grade education, he learned to read and write in English, and considered it one of his greatest accomplishments, along with becoming an American citizen and raising eight children – all college graduates.

White Rose Cemetery is owned and operated by the City of Bartlesville, Oklahoma. The Cemetery consists of approximately 20 acres of land at 11th and Virginia in Bartlesville. Several additional acres to the north of the current cemetery have recently been acquired through donation, and this land is currently in the process of being platted for future use. For additional information, you may contact the City of Bartlesville, Attn: White Rose Cemetery, 401 South Johnstone, Bartlesville Ok 74003.

OLSF gets $361,000 more from estate

The Oklahoma Lions Service Foundation has received $361,000 more from the estate of a Bartlesville Lion who died more than a year ago.

Ledington

That sum raises to $561,000 the amount OLSF has received from the nearly $3 million left to eight charitable and civic groups by Gerald Jack Ledington, 72, who died in March 2000.

Fellow Lion Bill McClintock recalled that Ledington became concerned shortly before his death about whether he had left money to all his favorite groups.

Realizing he had forgotten one, he wrote a sizable check and gave it to McClintock to deliver.

Ledington left 20 percent of his estate to the OLSF.

Ledington also left 5 percent (about $140,000) to the Bartlesville Limestone Lions Club which he served as president in 1992-93 and as secretary from 1994 until his death.

The never-married Ledington's only relative is a distant cousin who was disinherited in a 1998 codicil (supplement) to his holographic (hand-written) will.

Ledington's interest in the OLSF stemmed from his service on the Boys Ranch board in 1993-96. After his term ended, he maintained an interest in state projects and quizzed visiting governors about them.

A Lion for more than 20 years, Ledington always helped with the club's fund-raising projects such as selling Christmas trees and frying pancakes and service projects such as working at the kiddie park and picking up highway trash.

The latest checks to OLSF, the Limestone club and other recipients represent the final distribution of assets from the estate.

Part of the money in his estate came from the estate of his sister, Marguerite Ledington, with whom he lived and who died several months before he did. She accumulated a large bloc of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. stock during a 50-year career with the company.

A retired accounting supervisor for Phillips Petroleum Co., Ledington was reared in Pawhuska and maintained close ties there as illustrated by his will.

He left 20 percent each (about $561,000) to the First Christian Church in Pawhuska; the OSU Foundation to provide scholarships and assistance for students from Pawhuska; the Pawhuska High School Foundation to buy music and large instruments for the band, orchestra and choir; and 5 per cent (about $140,000) each to the Pawhuska library to buy books, the Osage County Historical Museum and the Bartlesville library's genealogy department to buy books.

The original Busby Cemetery was located on the Little Caney River at mile 7.4, about two miles west of Copan and just south of Cotton Creek. The cemetery was relocated between November, 1979 and March 1980 by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, due to construction of Copan Lake. Busby Cemetery is now located on Falleaf Drive in Copan. The Delaware Indian Tribe, 220 NW Virginia, Bartlesville, OK, is currently the owner of record. The cemetery is well maintained and active with a few burials since 1980 which are not included in this list.

West Virginia Estate Settlements

In 1936 and 1937, the West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers, the Works Progress Administration, and the Federal Emergency Relief Administration compiled court records of the various counties, such as Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Wills. Under Wills were grouped subjects pertaining to Estate Settlements, including Wills, Inventories, and Appraisements. Copies of these county records were filed at the Department of Archives and History, Charleston; the Library of West Virginia University, Morgantown; and the DAR Library, Washington.

Believing that there would be particular interest on the part of the general public in the Estate Settlements in the older counties, the West Virginia Historical Society has undertaken to abstract the Estate Settlement Records, as filed in the State Department of Archives and History, and offer them for publication in the West Virginia History Quarterly. (No responsibility can be assumed as to the accuracy of the copies made from the original county records.

There are 13 counties which were formed prior to 1800, and it has been agreed to arrange these counties in chronological order, and to print their records from the earliest date to 1850. The formation dates of these counties are as follows: Hampshire—1753; Berkeley—1772; Monongalia—1776; Ohio—1776; Greenbrier—1778; Harrison—1784; Hardy—1786; Randolph—1787; Pendleton—1788; Kanawha—1788; Brooke—1797; Wood—1798; and Monroe—1799.

West Virginia Estate Settlements

(FROM HALL TO RUBLE)

In 1936 and 1937, the West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers, the Works Progress Administration, and the Federal Emergency Relief Administration compiled court records of the various counties, such as Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Wills. Under Wills were grouped subjects pertaining to Estate Settlements, including Wills, Inventories, and Appraisements. Copies of these county records were filed at the Department of Archives and History, Charleston; the Library of West Virginia University, Morgantown; and the DAR Library, Washington.

Believing that there would be particular interest on the part of the general public in the Estate Settlements in the older counties, the West Virginia Historical Society has undertaken to abstract the Estate Settlement Records, as filed in the State Department of Archives and History, and offer them for publication in the West Virginia History Quarterly. (No responsibility can be assumed as to the accuracy of the copies made from the original county records.

There are 13 counties which were formed prior to 1800, and it has been agreed to arrange these counties in chronological order, and to print their records from the earliest date to 1850. The formation dates of these counties are as follows: Hampshire—1753; Berkeley—1772; Monongalia—1776; Ohio—1776; Greenbrier—1778; Harrison—1784; Hardy—1786; Randolph—1787; Pendleton—1788; Kanawha—1788; Brooke—1797; Wood—1798; and Monroe—1799.

Monongalia County, Formed 1776

Abbreviations used in this material include: Acc.—account; Adm. — administrator; App. — appraisement; Bro. — brother; Dau.—daughter; Dev.—devisee; Guard.—guardian; Inv.—inventory; S.B.—sale bill; Set.—settlement; Sis.—sister; Ven.—vendue.

West Virginia Estate Settlements

In 1936 and 1937, the West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers, the Works Progress Administration, and the Federal Emergency Relief Administration compiled court records of the various counties, such as Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Wills. Under Wills were grouped subjects pertaining to Estate Settlements, including Wills, Inventories, and Appraisements. Copies of these county records were filed at the Department of Archives and History, Charleston; the Library of West Virginia University, Morgantown; and the DAR Library, Washington.

Believing that there would be particular interest on the part of the general public in the Estate Settlements in the older counties, the West Virginia Historical Society has undertaken to abstract the Estate Settlement Records, as filed in the State Department of Archives and History, and offer them for publication in the West Virginia History Quarterly. (No responsibility can be assumed as to the accuracy of the copies made from the original records.)

There are 13 counties which were formed prior to 1800, and it has been agreed to arrange these counties in chronological order, and to print their records from the earliest date to 1850. The formation dates of these counties are as follows: Hampshire—1753; Berkeley—1772; Monongalia—1776; Ohio—1776; Greenbrier—1778; Harrison—1784; Hardy—1786; Randolph—1787; Pendleton—1788; Kanawha—1788; Brooke—1797; Wood—1798; and Monroe—1799.

Monongalia County Formed 1776

West Virginia Estate Settlements

In 1936 and 1937, the West Virginia Commission on Historic and Scenic Markers, the Works Progress Administration, and the Federal Emergency Relief Administration compiled court records of the various counties, such as Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Wills. Under Wills were grouped subjects pertaining to Estate Settlements, including Wills, Inventories, and Appraisements. Copies of these county records were filed at the Department of Archives and History, Charleston; the Library of West Virginia University, Morgantown; and the DAR Library, Washington.

Believing that there would be particular interest on the part of the general public in the Estate Settlements in the older counties, the West Virginia Historical Society has undertaken to abstract the Estate Settlement Records, as filed in the State Department of Archives and History, and offer them for publication in the West Virginia History Quarterly. (No responsibility can be assumed as to the accuracy of the copies made from the original records.)

There are 13 counties which were formed prior to 1800, and it has been agreed to arrange these counties in chronological order, and to print their records from the earliest date to 1850. The formation dates of these counties are as follows: Hampshire—1753; Berkeley—1772; Monongalia—1776; Ohio—1776; Greenbrier—1778; Harrison—1784; Hardy—1786; Randolph—1787; Pendleton—1788; Kanawha—1788; Brooke—1797; Wood—1798; and Monroe—1799.
